The Housekeeper

Check-in

Guests arrive and are greeted at the door.

> "Welcome, we've been expecting you!"
> "Please select your calling card." (points to the table with character cards)
> "Scan the QR code to read about the past you've forgotten, and then click the button at the bottom."
> "Once you've done that, please sign in by scanning the QR code in the book."

Notes

- These characters must be taken: The Baker · The Heiress · The Fiduciary · The Art Collector · The Town Doctor · The Explorer
- The Baker must be taken. If necessary, assign that character before welcoming the guest into the foyer.
- When someone chooses The Baker, hand them the basket of freshly baked rose bread.

G.G. (The Hostess)

The Lonely Ghost

Alice Whitmore

Scene — opens Act III

Walk slowly from the kitchen, through the garden, to the Aviary. Stand facing the porch.

> "Finally, finally, someone can hear me!"
> "I have a message for you."
> "I did not fall down the stairs — something happened to me."
> "The world went dark all of a sudden."
> "Thaddeus? Have you seen him?"
> "I have his diary."
> "Time for our true feelings to be known."

Then offer the diary out to the guests to scan.

Instructions

- Silently offer people vision cards to scan — by act!
- Optionally, improvise short mutterings.

Mutterings

Act III

- "Cordelia needs to know the truth! Please, someone tell her!"
- "I tried to warn them. I tried to tell them what I saw."
- "The timeline doesn't make sense... something happened between 1924 and 1925."
- "I can't speak it. I can't say what I know. But someone must."
- "Something is wrong. I can feel it in my bones."
- "Why won't anyone listen? Why won't they believe me?"
- "The tea... there's something about the tea. I know it!"

The Heartbroken Ghost

Cordelia Montrose

Scene — Act I

When G.G. says "let the investigation begin" and the doors open:

- Cordelia stands in the middle of the dining room, slowly walking toward the pantry/kitchen.
- Sebastian is in the Library, looking at her. He says: "Cordelia, forgive me!"
- Cordelia slowly looks at him, and walks away.

Instructions

- Silently offer people vision cards to scan — by act!
- Optionally, improvise short mutterings.

Mutterings

Act I

- "I think about Thomas. My first love. Lost at sea years ago."
- "I remember Elias, he used to write me poems..."
- "Alice. Dear, brilliant Alice — my dear friend! Are you coming for tea tonight?!"
- "The roses in the garden... they remind me of happier times."

Act II

- "My head aches... why does everything feel so heavy?"
- "Sebastian, where are you? I need you here with me."
- "Something isn't right. I can't think clearly anymore."
- "The elixir tasted sweet this morning... but why do I feel so weak?"

Act III

- "Alice... where did you go? I called for you but you never came."
- "Sebastian is gone too. Everyone I love leaves me. Why?"
- "I'm so tired. So very tired. My heart feels wrong."
- "There are so many unanswered questions... so many secrets."

Act IV

- "THE GLASS REMEMBERS!" — around the time the Forensic Scientist arrives.

The Alchemist

Sebastian Crane — the Cursed Alchemist

Scene — Act I

When G.G. says "let the investigation begin" and the doors open:

- Cordelia stands in the middle of the dining room, slowly walking toward the pantry/kitchen.
- Sebastian is in the Library, looking at her. He says: "Cordelia, forgive me!"
- Cordelia slowly looks at him, and walks away.

Instructions

- Silently offer people vision cards to scan — by act!
- Optionally, improvise short mutterings.

Mutterings

Act I

- "Love can be perfected through chemistry... I know it can."
- "The stars align, the formula is flawless. This will be my masterpiece."
- "Cordelia understands my vision. She sees the poetry in science."
- "Damiana, Valerian, Rose Otto... each ingredient chosen with care."

Act II

- "Cordelia is getting sick... but my formula is flawless. It must be stress from the wedding."
- "Everyone keeps worrying, but they don't understand chemistry like I do. My work is perfect."
- "My brother says it's nerves. Women are delicate, after all. It's probably nothing serious."
- "I've spent years perfecting this. Years! I know what I'm doing. They just don't understand."

Act III

- "I drank it myself. I had to know... I had to be certain."
- "Something is terribly wrong. My heart... it won't stop racing."
- "I failed her. I failed my great work. How could I be so wrong?"
- "My brother tried to help... but nothing worked. Nothing could save me."
